

DSR

Today we modified the web app as per requirements now you can generate reference check question using the job description itself. Just enter the job description of any domain and the web app will generate reference check question based on it for the candidate applying for that job. Moreover, you can also visualize the question in the individual panel and cross check them manually as well.

Here is the following result of the web app created: -

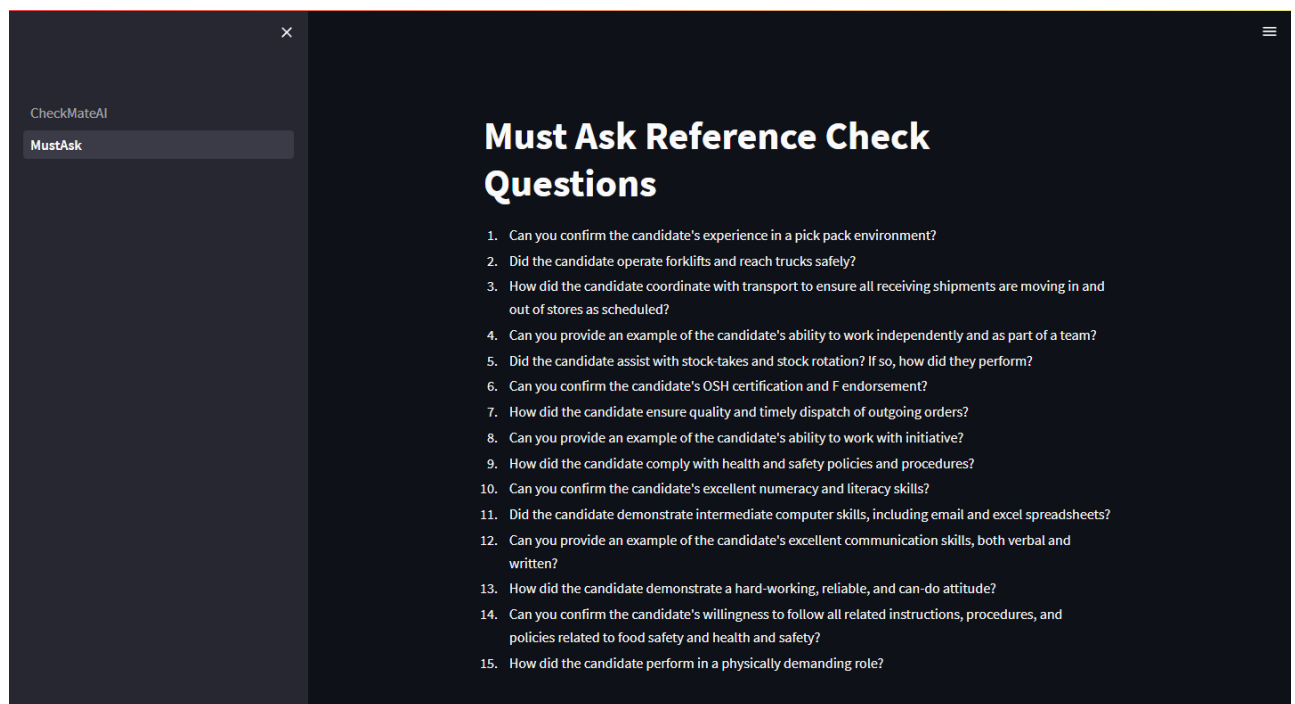

Figure 1: Job Description based reference check questions